

Feedback from Home Superheroes

"Hiya, just emailing in to say my daughter Krystle is really enjoying the storytelling that's being uploaded to Parenthub! She is asking everyday if there is a new one on there. We are also going to be asking the little bears from Miss Wade's story time once we have saved enough kitchen roll middles."

"Shekinah wears her uniform to help her stay in the middle of learning. She misses school and all her friends."

"Abbie is enjoying studying the human body."

Dear pupils, parents & carers,

I hope this Stay at Home Snippets finds you and your loved ones both physically and mentally well as we all adjust to our current circumstances.

Whilst we are learning many valuable lessons about what is of true value to us, keeping ourselves safe is paramount. Following all social distancing regulations and regular and thorough hand washing remain key to staying physically healthy.

Many of our children are now spending prolonged periods on their iPads, phones etc., and I urge you to closely monitor their online activity. The National Crime Agency which protects children both online and offline has provided advice through the following link www.thinkuknow.co.uk. This is helpful to parents/carers and children.

Thank you for posting photographs of what your children are doing at home. This allows us all to keep connected which is essential as we take each day as it comes and get through this unprecedented situation.

Keep safe and well,
Selina Frazer, Headteacher.
