RED PANDA!

The red panda is a mammal native to the eastern Himalayas and south-western China. It has reddish-brown fur, a long shaggy tail, and a waddling gait due to its shorter front legs, and is slightly larger than a domestic cat. It feeds mainly on bamboo, but also eats eggs, birds, and insects. It is mainly active from dusk to dawn. The red panda has been classified as Endangered

SO DON'T LET THEM GET KILLED!

What Do Year 1&2 Do At Lunch?

At lunchtime Nabiha, Adeola, Nike, Ruby, Jamie, Jemima, Patricia, Molly and Sergio walk around the infant's playground and play with the children. Tia, Mia, Olivia, Muaz and Bobby get the music player, which is incredibly loud, for the children to dance or sing to. Alex, Martin and Favour get a football out and start to play with the children.

Muskaan and Tanisha get the foldable buggies out and make sure everyone who wants a go gets one.

QUEEN ELIZABETH'S 90th BIRTHDAY

On Friday the 10th June 2016, Her Majesty the Queen turned 90 years old. Hunters Hall Primary School celebrated her birthday, we got to dress in the colours of the United Kingdom flag. As we went through the day the EURO football was going on, and our school had teams of countries and each class got picked a country, some of our teachers did a raffle to see who was going to be in the team.

CHOCOLATE PUDDING RECIPE.

Ingredients:

- 3 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 4 1/2 ounces semi-sweet or bittersweet chocolate
- 3 cups whole milk
- 1 cup granulated sugar, divided
- 1/4 cup cocoa powder
- 3 tablespoons corn-starch
- 1/8 teaspoon fine sea salt
- 3 large eggs, room temperature
- 1 large egg yolk, room temperature
- 1/4 cup heavy cream
- 1 tablespoon dark rum
- 1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- whipped cream
- chocolate shavings, for garnish

Preparation:

Bring 1 inch of water to a simmer in a medium saucepan over low heat. Place butter in a heatproof bowl set over (but not touching) simmering water and melt butter. Add semisweet and unsweetened chocolates and let stand, stirring often, until melted and smooth. Remove bowl from heat and set aside.

Heat milk and 1/3 cup sugar in a medium saucepan over low heat until it begins to steam. Meanwhile, whisk remaining 2/3 cup sugar, cocoa, corn-starch, and salt in a medium heatproof bowl. Add eggs, yolk, and cream; whisk until well combined. Gradually whisk in half of the hot milk mixture. Add cocoa mixture to saucepan with remaining milk mixture and bring to a boil over medium heat, whisking often, making sure to whisk into the corners of the pan. Reduce heat to low and let boil for 30 seconds.

Remove from heat. Add melted chocolate mixture, rum, and vanilla; whisk until combined. Pour into six 6-ounce glass jars or individual bowls. Cover with plastic wrap, pressing down on the surface to prevent a skin from forming. Pierce the plastic with the tip of a knife a few times and let cool to room temperature, about 1 hour.

Transfer puddings to a refrigerator; refrigerate until chilled, at least 2 hours and up to 3 days. Serve topped with whipped cream and garnished with chocolate shavings.

FOOTBALL SEMI FINALS

At Hunters Hall we had a football match and the year 3 played the other classes from year 3 as did the other year groups. On 8/7/2016 we had the semi finals. The winners of the class competed against each other to secure a place in the finals. The year 4 class (Northern Ireland) won against the year 3s (Sweden). The year 6 class (Slovakia) won against the year 5s (Ukraine). Afterwards we had a match between the year 6 class and the year 4. The Year 6 class won.
