Tuesday 7th December – first day of the spring term

Dear Parent/Carer,

Next week is our last week of this term and we finish school on Friday the 20th December 2019 at the usual time of 3:05pm for Reception and Years 1 and 2, and 3:10pm for Years 3,4,5 and 6.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our successful Year 1 and Year 4 concerts this week. They demonstrated the enormous talent we have in our school. As you can see from "Dates for the Diary," next week is also busy with discos, Christmas dinner, jolly jumper day and further concerts and Show and Share. We look forward to seeing many of you attending our events and especially our Christmas Coffee morning on Thursday at 9:00am.

I do have one request from you this week: please remember that the school gates open at 8:30am and the doors open at 8:40am. Your children should not be left unsupervised in the playgrounds before this time. Some children have entered the school grounds unsupervised as early as 8:15am. Please ensure that this does not happen. Should you require our Breakfast Club, please see Mr Bellevue.

I wish you a happy weekend.

Selina Frazer,
Headteacher.

Christmas Dinner & Jolly Jumper Day

Choir in the Community

Our choirs ventured into local community last Friday and today, when they visited Chesnut Care Home and Alexander Court Care Home. One of the residents continually stated, "beautiful!" as he listened to the carols being sung.

Pantomime

Yesterday, children in Years 1, 2 & 3 the opportunity to watch an excellent version of Cinderella, which had a cast of three actors. There was much merriment in hall as the children joined in with well-known panto phrases as well as singing along to modified modern songs.
