Dear Parent/Carer,

Firstly, I would like to start by thanking all parents & carers who attended our re-scheduled Autumn Term open evening on Wednesday. From the positive feedback that we received on the day, we know that you were able to find out how your child has settled into their new class and year group. Please remember that there will be a new way of selecting your child's meals from 4th December. So, check your ParentPay account and whether you can see your child appears, and there is the option to book lunches.

In February, you will be able to have an individual sit-down appointment with your child's teacher and look at the progress within their books and other work. In the interim, please continue to listen to your children read, and help them to practise their number facts.

Where possible, we like to give you as much notice as we can. Therefore, for our Reading for Pleasure feature after Christmas, we are asking for you to share with us books from your childhood. To do this, please send a photo of the front cover to office@hunters-hall.bardaglea.org.uk We are planning to produce a display linking these books to country of origin on a large world map.

Our staff volunteer their time to run clubs after school, in order to be able to offer some clubs such as football, which has a large number of children wanting a space, we are looking for a parent/carer to volunteer their time on a Monday 3pm to 4pm. If you hold a FA coaching qualification, we can assist you to get a DBS. Please contact me by either seeing me at the gate or sending an email via the office email address.

As you know, this week has also been devoted to anti-bullying. The week commenced with pupils, staff and some parents wearing odd socks as a symbol of being unique. The week has culminated in today's "Break the Rules" event with all £1 donations going to BBC Children in Need.

Please have an enjoyable and safe weekend. Don't forget to tune into BBC One tonight at 7pm to watch the appeal show, which is always fun packed.

Thank you

Uniform Reminder & PE Days 2023-2024

Our school uniform provider now sells school badges for £1.20 so that you are able to purchase plain white polo shirts/ plain red jumpers/cardigans and iron on the badge. (Our current provider will continue to sell their stock of red and grey uniform items and staff has been informed that it is a gradual phase out)

Who's Who? Mrs Copperthwaite

Why do you work at Hunters Hall?

This has been the most delightful job I've ever experience, though it's undeniably the most exhausting as well! The children inject so much joy into the work, and witnessing their progress is truly rewarding. I've formed numerous friendships at HHP in my 34 years here. I have seen many changes but he ethos of the school remains. It is just a wonderful place to work.

What's your role?

Teaching Assistant and Advanced Drawing & Talking practitioner.

Favourite things...

- Spending time with family.
- Socialising with my friends.
- Running the Girls' football team.
- Watching football - especially West Ham.
- Favourite book: Little Women by Louise May Alcott.
- Favourite film: Little Women.
- Favourite food: Chinese.

Own School Memories

I really enjoyed my time at school, and I have many fond memories. My favourite teacher at primary school was Mrs Sugarman. She was so kind and taught me lots about learning. At senior school, I really enjoyed learning about the past in history and I played netball for the school and was in the choir for 5 years.

Hopes & Dreams

For all my family and friends to be healthy and happy and the whole world to become a happier place for all.

How long have you been at Hunters Hall?

34 years!

Achievements to date (in order)

I have 5 children (4 boys and a girl) who I am immensely proud of. 2 are teachers, 2 are electricians and 1 works in waste management. I have 9 grandchildren and hopefully this becomes 10 soon! I was very happy to qualify as an Advanced Drawing & Talking practitioner. I have had much success with running the girls' football team including winning the league in 2012 and reaching 2 cup finals. I have worked at Hunters Hall for over half of my life, and I have seen many children I have taught go on to achieve much success. This includes my 5 children who all attended HHP. I am very close to retirement but have some time left at the school, which I plan on enjoying.

Reading for Pleasure Matters at Hunters Hall

To launch our anti bullying week, the children wore odd socks to school. To empower our children, we talked about bullying, how it makes us feel, what we need to do if we feel bullied or see another child being bullied. Here are just three stories that explore bullying.

Reading interest: 4-8

'Avocado Baby' by John Birmingham is about a baby who finds super strength when he eats avocados. It's a great moment in the book when he stands up to the bullies who are tormenting his older brother and sister.

Reading interest: 8-12

'The Boy in the Dress' by David Walliams explores lots of different themes including identity, divorce and bullying. The book is a good read, sad, funny and with a clear message to us all!

Reading interest: 10-adult

'Wonder' by R.J. Palacio is a beautiful book. The world can be a harsh and unkind place, but within us all is the ability to be kind. As they say, BE KIND..... ALWAYS.

Sweet & Sour Chicken Noodles

Year 3 Art

As part of our Art lessons, we sketched ancient Egyptian animals and characters. After, we added detail and coloured them in.

4G wrote acrostic poems to mark Remembrance Sunday last weekend.

Remember all those who died
Every man, woman and child
Many hearts hurt and shattered
End of hopes, dreams that mattered
Mainly innocent pay the price
By bullies, who aren't so nice
Even babies they attack
Ruthless, and hearts they must lack

Red poppies everywhere
Everyone's hearts still
Marches take place
Echoes of cannon fire
Many tears shed
Back from war
Every November 11th
Remember them

Remembrance day is here
Excited to celebrate
Millions of people died
Exremely sad
Many people killed others
Being brave to join war
Everyone remembers in our prayers
Red poppies around places

Red poppies row on row
Every soldier wanting to see their loved ones again
Memories will stay forever
Exhausted soldiers fighting for their country and peace
More and more we all remember
Brave strong soldiers
Everyone crying for their lost ones
Rewarded for their courage

Remember the people that died in the War

Echo of gun shots in Flanders fields

Memories are still alive

Emergency emergency! Gas attack has hit

Members of Community have died that day

Brothers and sisters were holding hands

End of the war had thankfully come

Remember remember the gas have been put down and no need to worry about the war now.

twinkl

Red poppies grow next to the cross

Every brave soldier fighting our war.

Memories for loved ones who died in war

Even now people are going to war.

Many thought their husband or loved ones were coming back

Be sure to remember those who died.

Eventually, more people will join the army

Remembrance day is on the 11th November to remember those who died
